GATHERING

Organ Prelude

"Ach, was soll ich Sunder machen" BWV 770 Variations on a Theme by Wiltlich Aldorf (1653) & Johann Flittner (1661) - J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

Sentence

Through Christ let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Hebrews 13.15

The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. Mark 10.45

Acclamation

Open our lips, O Lord

And we shall declare your praise.

This is the day the Lord has made

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Welcome and Introduction

Friends in Christ,

we come together to meet with God,

and to take our part in the building up of his Church.

We will lift up our hearts in thanks and praise,

hear from God's holy word,

and pray for this world, and for ourselves.

In today's readings we are challenged to model our life on Jesus

'who came not to be served but to serve,

and to give his life as a ransom for many.'
In Jesus we have an advocate we can trust,
Who, having shared our human weakness,
Enables us to approach God without fear or reproach.
Before we hear God's Holy Word
and offer our praise and thanksgiving,
Let us approach God confidently,
 through our Lord Jesus Christ.
As we do so, we humbly confess our sins,
 seeking forgiveness through God's boundless goodness and mercy.

Confession

Return to the Lord your God, who is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love. Joel 2.13

Let us now confess our sins to almighty God.

Heavenly Father,
you have loved us with an everlasting love,
but we have broken your holy laws
and have left undone what we ought to have done.
We are sorry for our sins
and turn away from them.
For the sake of your Son who died for us,
forgive us, cleanse us and change us.
By your Holy Spirit,
enable us to live for you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Absolution

God desires that none should perish,
but that all should turn to Christ, and live.
In response to his call we acknowledge our sins.
God pardons those who humbly repent,
and truly believe the gospel.
Therefore we have peace with God, through Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Hymn

Come down, O Love divine (TiS 398)

Come down, O Love divine, seek now this soul of mine,
and visit it with our own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear
and kindle it, your holy flame bestowing.

There let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes, in its heat consuming;
and let your glorious light shine ever on my sight
and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
my outward garment be,
and lowliness become my inner clothing:
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part
and for its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace till we become the place
in which the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Author: Bianco de Siena (d. 1434) Tune: DOWN AMPNEY Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

THE WORD

Prayer

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father,
give us wisdom and understanding.
As we listen to your Word,
may we know you better,
love you more,
and learn to please you in all we do;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

First Reading - Hebrews 4.14-16

Let us approach the throne of grace with boldness.

A reading from the book of Hebrews.

- 14 Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.
- 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin.
- 16 Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Psalm 33:1, 4-5, 12, 18-19, 20, 22

- 1 Your words, O God, are truth indeed,
And all your works are ever faithful;
you love justice and right,
your compassion fills all creation. R.
- 2 See how the eye of God is watching,
ever guarding all who wait in hope,
to deliver them from death
and sustain them in time of famine. R.
- 3 Exult, you just, in the Lord,
for praise is the song of the righteous!
How happy the people of God,
the ones whom God has chosen! R.
- 4 Our soul is waiting for God,
for God is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O God, be upon us who place our hope in you. R.

Marty Haugen (1950-)

Second Reading - Mark 10.35-45

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark.

- 35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee,
came forward to Jesus and said to him,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."
- 36 And Jesus said to them,
"What is it you want me to do for you?"
- 37 And they said to him,
"Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."

- 38 But Jesus said to them,
"You do not know what you are asking.
Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"
- 39 They replied, "We are able."
Then Jesus said to them,
"The cup that I drink you will drink;
and with the baptism with which I am baptized,
you will be baptized;
- 40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."
- 41 When the ten heard this,
they began to be angry with James and John.
- 42 So Jesus called them and said to them,
"You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.
- 43 But it is not so among you;
whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,
- 44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.
- 45 For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve,
and to give his life as a ransom for many."

May your Word live in us.

And bear much fruit to your glory.

Hymn

From heaven you came, helpless babe (TiS 256)

From heaven you came helpless babe
Entered our world, your glory veiled
Not to be served but to serve
And give Your life that we might live. *R.

Refrain: This is our God, The Servant King
He calls us now to follow Him
To bring our lives as a daily offering Of worship to The Servant King.

There in the garden of tears
My heavy load he chose to bear
His heart with sorrow was torn
'Yet not My will but Yours,' He said. *R.

Come see His hands and His feet
The scars that speak of sacrifice
Hands that flung stars into space
To cruel nails surrendered. *R.

So let us learn how to serve
And in our lives enthrone Him
Each other's needs to prefer
For it is Christ we're serving. *R.

Author: Graham Kendrick (1950-) Tune: SERVANT KING Graham Kendrick (1950-)

Sermon

Rev Matthew Healy

The Apostles' Creed

Let us together affirm the faith of the church.

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Suffrages

Be exalted, Lord, above the heavens,
let your glory cover the earth.
Keep our nation under your care,
and guide us in justice and truth.
Let your way be known on earth,
your saving power among all nations.
Send out your light and your truth,
that we may tell of your saving works.
Have mercy on the poor and oppressed.
Hear the cry of those in need.
Hear our prayers, O Lord,
for we put our trust in you.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours
now and forever. Amen.

The Prayer of the Day

Christ, who as a servant,
emptied yourself of glory
and carried all our afflictions;
teach us this obedience:
that since in baptism
we are united to your sufferings, so, through the burdens of the needy
and standing witness to your justice, we may be found in that eternal life which you have with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

Amen.

Motet

Come, my way, my truth, my life - George Herbert (1593-1633):

setting by Margaret Rizza, arranged by Conrad Helfrich

*Come, my way, my truth, my life;
such a way as gives us breath.
such a truth as ends all strife:
such a life as killeth death.*

*Come, my light, my feast, my strength;
such a light as shows a feast.
such a feast as mends in length,
such a strength as makes his guest.*

*Come, my joy, my love, my heart;
such a joy as none can move.
such a love as none can part;
such a heart, as joys in love.*

*Come, my joy, my love, my heart;
such a love as none can part.*

THE PRAYERS

Prayers of the People

Dear friends, Jesus spent his life among us in the service of all.
In that spirit let us pray for the needs of the whole human family.

For faith leaders and heads of state, that they will be freed of ambition and devote themselves in selfless service to the good of the community. (Pause)
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the leaders of nations, that they will take the decisive steps needed to deal with the climate crisis and protect the earth, our common home. (Pause)
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the poor of the world, that today's International Day for the Eradication of Poverty will spark renewed efforts to share the world's resources justly.
(Pause)

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For public health workers engaging with culturally diverse communities, that they will help them respond effectively to the COVID challenge. (Pause)
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For young people struggling with mental health issues, that they will find the personal companionship and professional help they need. (Pause)
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who were born or have become deaf, that they will be enabled to flourish and participate fully in the life of the community. (Pause)
Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For refugees and asylum seekers in Australia who see violence and injustice consuming their homelands, that their pain will be eased by local networks of support. (Pause)

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who are not well physically, emotionally or spiritually, especially Jasmyn, Peter, Kristy, Clive, Leanne, Geoff, Bishop Andrew, Cathy & Chris, & Dorothy. (Pause)

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the recently deceased, Brian Scharpe, Br Daniel Matthews, Patricia Carter, and Dr Jim Keipert; and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time, Malcolm Graham, Myrtle Hirt, Alan Snelling, Frank Roberts, Annette Pearson, Jackie Pearson, and Kelly Pearson, that they will enjoy the eternal life won for them by the Son of Man. (Pause)

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Concluding Prayer

Loving God,
we thank you for hearing our prayers,
feeding us with your word,
and encouraging us in our meeting together.

Take us and use us
to love and serve you and all people, in the power of your Spirit
and in the name of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Hymn

Forth in your name, O Lord, I go (TiS 571)

Forth in your name, O Lord, I go,
my daily labour to pursue,
you, Lord, alone resolved to know,
in all I think, or speak, or do.

Each task your wisdom has assigned still let me cheerfully fulfil,
in all my works your presence find,
and prove your good and perfect will.

You may I set at my right hand,
whose eyes my inmost substance view,
and labour on at your command,
and offer all my works to you.

Give me to bear your easy yoke,
and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to your glorious day;

For you delightfully employ all that your bounteous grace has given,
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with you to heaven.

Author: Charles Wesley (1707-88) Tune: SONG 34 Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

SENDING OUT

Aaronic Blessing and Dismissal

✠ May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord look upon you with favour and grant you peace.

Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord:
In the name of Christ. Amen.

THE CREEDS

*What is the core of Christian belief in greater depth, as shown through the Nicene and Apostles' Creeds?
Six sessions aim to provide a framework for discussion about the creeds of the Christian Church.*

- Session 1 explores what it could mean to say: "I believe" and "We believe" and the potential role for the creeds to strengthen our relationship with God.
- Session 2 explores what it means to understand God as Trinity: one God in three persons.
- Sessions 3 and 4 take us deeper in our understanding of Jesus and look at the way Christ is fully God and fully human and at the great work of redemption on the cross.
- Session 5 explores the person and work of the Holy Spirit
- Session 6 explores what it is to be called 'the Church.'
