GATHERING HYMN: 272

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE WORD

First Reading [Genesis 14.18-20]

Melchizedek of Salem

brought out bread and wine.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

When Abram heard that his nephew, Lot, had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, and routed the abductors. 18 After Abram's return King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. 19 He blessed Abram and said,

"Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; 20 and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!" And Abram gave him one tenth of everything.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Response to Psalm 110:1-4

You are a priest for_ ev - er, in the line of Mel-chis - e - dech.

1 The LORD's revelation to my LORD: "Sit at my right, I will put your foes beneath your feet." R/.

2 The LORD will send from Sion, your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of your foes. R/.

3 A prince from the day of your birth, on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R/.

4 The LORD has sworn an oath that will not change: "You are a priest forever, a priest like Melchizedek of old." R/.

Second Reading [1 Corinthians 11.23-26]

As often as you eat this bread

and drink the cup,

you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Beloved, 23 I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, 24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." 25 In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel [Luke 9.11b-17]

All ate and were filled.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

✠ Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

11 Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed to be cured. 12 The day was drawing to a close, and the twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a deserted place." 13 But Jesus said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish— unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." 14 For there were about five thousand men. And Jesus said to his disciples, "Make the people sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 They did so and made them all sit down. 16 And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. 17 And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN: 310

Prayer over the Gifts

Let us pray.

God our sustainer, receive the gifts we bring before you, and feed us continually with that bread which satisfies all hunger, and that cup which quenches all thirst, your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THANKSGIVING HYMN: 307

Communion Sentence

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Cor 11:26

Post Communion Prayer

All praise to you, our God and Father, for you have fed us with the bread of heaven and quenched our thirst from the true vine: hear our prayer that, being grafted into Christ, we may grow together in unity and feast with him in his kingdom.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord. Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

Blessing

Christ, who has nourished us with himself the living bread, make you one in praise and love, and raise you up at the last day; and the blessing of God almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Hear the intricate harmonies of Polyphonic Voices mingling with the spectacle of Luke Jerram's majestic Gaia, a detailed sculpture of the earth that currently hangs in space inside St Paul's Cathedral, Melbourne. The artwork aims to create a sense of the 'overview effect', which is a shift in awareness experienced by some astronauts who, when seeing the earth from space, get a feeling of awe for the planet and an understanding of the interconnectedness of all life, along with a renewed sense of responsibility for taking care of the environment. The majority-Australian program Songs for the Earth has been specially selected to respond to these themes, and features works by Paul Stanhope, Joe Twist, Alice Chance, Stephen Leek and Dan Walker, as well as texts by Indigenous writers Oodgeroo Noonuccal and Reverend Lenore Parker that foreground Indigenous Australians' relationship with Country. MELBOURNE PERFORMANCE on Saturday 25 June 2022 7-8pm at St Paul's Cathedral, Melbourne. Music Notes

Prelude: "Nun freut euch, lieben Christen g'mein" Johann Pachelbel (1653-1706)

In this chorale prelude the hymn tune is heard in the bass line (in the pedals) doubled by the left hand.

Postlude: Vesper Voluntary no 3, Edward Elgar (1857 - 1934)

Sir Edward Elgar was an English composer whose works have entered into the international classical concert repertoire. Among his best known compositions are orchestral works including the Enigma Variations, the Pomp and Circumstance Marches, Dream of Gerontius, 2 concertos for violin and one for cello, which is one of the most often played and beautiful in the cello repertoire.. Jacqueline du Pres championed this work and her recordings remain one of the most beloved interpretations of this music. In contrast to the emotional grandeur of his orchestral music this piece has a simplicity and purity with an element of song typical of Elgar's writing.
