THE LITURGICAL ENVIRONMENT

The liturgical colour today for Lent is purple.

It symbolises preparation, sorrow, and penitence. During the forty days of Lent the decorations in the church are subdued – there are no flowers – and the music more restrained – holding expressions of joy for the Easter festival.

FROM FR STUART:

IN GOOD HANDS

I had a fall during this week and broke a rib. Under doctors' advice I am resting for a week hoping pain management and healing can allow me to be in better shape for Holy Week. I am very grateful that Mother Colleen O'Reilly can preside and preach today.

MUSIC IN THE PARISH

This week our Director of Music, Stuart Connew, emailed me to say he had accepted the appointment as Director of Music and Organist at St Oswald's, Glen Iris. During the interregnum, Stuart was engaged for a twelve-month period so that a new priest could establish themselves in the role. I am very grateful for the many ways in which Stuart has brought his considerable experience to the role and helped us to sing praise to the Most High. His last Sunday with us will be Easter Sunday but we will farewell him and Karen during the refreshments following the Paschal Vigil on Holy Saturday. Both Stuart and Karen have been an enlivening and cheerful part of our faith community. We will miss them but are glad this wonderful opportunity for Stuart has been given to him.

RENEWING OUR BAPTISMAL PROMISES

I commend them to your prayer and reflection the baptismal promises we will renew round the font at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday. They are on page 22 of this booklet.

confident in God's forgiveness.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

Almighty God,

put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,

STATEMENT ON THE RECENT ATTACK ON CROWDS GATHERING TO RECEIVE HUMANITARIAN AID

March 1, 2024

In the early morning hours of Thursday, February 29th, according to eye-witness testimonies, Israeli forces in southwest Gaza City opened fire on crowds of civilians seeking to receive sacks of flour to feed their starving families. The ensuing carnage resulted in the death of more than a hundred Gazans, with hundreds more seriously injured. Doctors on the scene and at receiving hospitals reported that most were killed or injured by gunfire, with some becoming victimized after being either trampled by panicked crowds or hit by aid trucks fleeing the horrific scene.

Although government spokesmen initially tried to deny the soldiers' involvement in this incident, later that day Israel's Minister of National Security not only praised IDF fighters for acting "excellently," but also attempted to blame the victims for their own demise, charging that they had sought to harm heavily armed soldiers. He went on to assail the delivery of humanitarian aid into Gaza, arguing that it should cease.

That stated desire has already become a harsh reality for the half-million remaining in Gaza City, where aid deliveries have nearly halted because of heavy entry restrictions and lack of security escort for the delivery convoys. Humanitarian officials have so often warned of siege-induced famine in north Gaza that foreign governments of goodwill have been forced as a last resort to conduct humanitarian airdrops. Yet these offer only a tiny fraction of the relief that is needed for a remnant civilian population greater than that of Tel Aviv, Israel's second largest city.

In the aftermath of yesterday's horrifying events and their cruel context, We, the Patriarchs and Heads of the Churches in Jerusalem, condemn this wanton attack against innocent civilians and call for the warring parties to reach an immediate and lengthy ceasefire that allows for the speedy disbursement of relief supplies throughout the Gaza strip, and for the enactment of a negotiated release of those held as captives and prisoners.

While expressing these entreaties on behalf of all innocents suffering from the war, we convey our special prayers of support to the Christian communities in Gaza under our pastoral care. These include the more than 800 Christians who have now taken refuge in St. Porphyrios and Holy Family Churches in Gaza City for nearly five months. We likewise extend these same expressions of solidarity to the intrepid staff and volunteers of the Anglican-run Ahli Hospital, and to the patients they serve.

In issuing the above calls, our ultimate hope is that the end of hostilities, the release of captives, and the care of the downtrodden will open a horizon for serious diplomatic discussions that finally lead to a just and lasting peace here in the land where our Lord Jesus Christ first took up his cross on our behalf. May God grant us all his grace as we seek the fulfilment of this hopeful Easter vision.

—The Patriarchs and Heads of the Churches in Jerusalem

FROM THE CLIMATE ACTION GROUP

You may have noticed our 'Wake Up' climate action banner has recently come down. This was partly because it was time it did, but also to prepare for new activity in May!

We, at St Barts, are joining hundreds of other faith communities all over the world, through Green Faith International, in a week of action from 3rd -11th May 2024.

Mosques, temples, Cathedrals, churches, synagogues etc globally are being invited to put up banners and hold special services and events, to draw attention to the voices of ordinary people crying out for the planet.

Australia is the 3rd largest exporter of fossil fuels globally. Our effects on climate are devastating, and this needs to change.

Ordinary people in small faith communities have a voice.

We can use it!
